

Call for participants

For the training course "Culture of Democracy", 1st – 10th October, 2015 in Vadul lui Voda, Republic of Moldova.

Together with our partners, we are looking for participants from Armenia, Denmark, Georgia, Moldova, Romania and Ukraine.

Summary:

The project "Culture of Democracy" is an 8-working day training course in Vadul lui Voda, Republic of Moldova, gathering 24 youth leaders from Armenia, Denmark, Georgia, Moldova, Romania and Ukraine. The training will take place from the 1st to the 10th of October, 2015, the 1st being arrival day and the 10th departure day.

Modern democracy and political progress requires that the different political groups cooperate and establish common goals based on a mutual understanding of each other's different priorities, opinions and principal stands. This pluralistic understanding is an integrated part of the political culture that is built among young people.

This project will strengthen youth workers in their role of building a democratic culture built on citizenship and pluralism.

The training will include simulations and interactive exercises, workshops, presentations, discussions and group work.

The training will be conducted in English and translation will not be provided. Therefore, the participants are expected to have a good level of English, both written and spoken.

Participants profile:

In order to participate, the candidates should be above 18 years old and must fulfill the following requirements:

- Be active and engaged youth leader/worker with direct responsibility for working with young people;
- Have a good conduct in English;
- Be able to attend the entire training;
- Have potential and be motivated to disseminate the results of the project.

Application and selection procedure

The nominated participants shall complete an application form on the following link:
